Pastor’s Message

Last month one of the scripture readings was about the ten lepers who were healed. Jesus heals ten lepers, and one returns to say “Thank you.” It is one of my favorite readings. I think it speaks to the fact that often we get so busy in our lives that we often don’t take the time to thank people. Perhaps the other nine were so excited about being whole again that they went on doing the things that they couldn’t do while exiled in a leper colony.

I use this as a rule in my life. I call it the 10% rule. Maybe 10 percent of the time you get acknowledged for the good that you do. I really wish it were higher—but apparently, Jesus was appreciated 10 percent of that time. And even Jesus says, “Where are the other nine? Didn’t I heal 10?”

Thanksgiving is a reminder to us to be thankful for all that we have received. I am grateful for all the blessings that 2022 has brought my way. I would like to just pause and thank everyone for their involvement in the Service of Installation, held on October 23rd. If you had a speaking, singing, playing or dancing part—thank you! If you attended in person or virtually—thank you! If you couldn’t do either but you offered a prayer for the ministry of this church—thank you! If you provided refreshments—thank you! If you sent along a note, via social media, text, email or a card—thank you! It was an exceptionally glorious and moving event in the life of our church (and my life). I look forward to going back and watching the livestream of the service (always available on our website).

While my heart is still full from the Installation, know that our work is just beginning. It is not time to rest and reflect. There are so many who are ready and willing to move our ministry forward into a new time. In order to do that, we need to support the church.

This is my plea: if you feel that you have been blessed by God, Jesus, or our Church, please do all you can to support the church. You can do that by sharing the blessing of your time, talent and/or treasure. If you have financially ‘pledged’ to the church in the past and you are able to increase your pledge, even a small amount, it will be a huge help to the church. Another very important way you can support the ministry of the church is to tell people about the many exciting things that are happening in the life of our church. If the music and words of the worship service touch your spirit, then share that with others. If the outreach and education ministries of the church impress you, then tell others. That would be a great gift for the church, and hopefully for the person that received this Good News.

This is a time of gratitude and thankfulness. We don’t know what the future holds. For many, our default setting is programmed to a ‘scarcity model,’ which means that there is only so much to go around. Here’s the thing: God’s blessings don’t work that way! God doesn’t bless us once and move on. I assure you; the next blessing is just around the corner.

If you and nine others were blessed by God, would you be the one to go back and say, “Thanks!”

Well...you have been blessed by God—let us ALL give thanks!

In Gratitude for All Blessings, Reverend Will Sencabaugh

OPEN MIC / COFFEE HOUSE, Second Saturday, November 12th, 6 to 8 PM Fellowship Hall

One of the goals of the church should be to try to help and build community. We are a downtown church, and we should be bringing folks together in our beautiful church. It doesn't have to be strictly religious offerings, but when people come together in a spirit of fellowship, building up community, I believe the Spirit is present. One of the things we have been offering is an Open Mic and Coffee House. Each month (we have had 3) we have seen more people participating with the promise that they would tell a couple of their friends. Let's remember that is how Jesus started his ministry (he told two friends, and they told two friends, and so on). We are seeing new and older faces. People are talking about it! You are welcome to attend or participate by sharing a song, poem, reading—whatever you would like. You are welcome to listen and doodle or listen and play on your phone. We ask for a $5 donation (if you can). This is one way to reach out to our community and invite them into God's space. We look forward to more exciting opportunities in the future.

HOLIDAY FAIR!

BOOK STUDY GROUP

OCTOBER, NOVEMBER, & DECEMBER

I want to lead book studies at our church. I will be mixing topics, authors, and even the level of theological difficulty. Some books and topics are much 'heavier' than others. I plan to look at books by Marcus Borg in Lent and Advent of 2023. I will have other books in the mix as well in 2023, but first...

October 11, 18, 25 and November 1, 8
6 - 7 pm

I would like to lead a discussion on the book Mayflower by Nathaniel Philbrick. All are welcome—even if you are not a Mayflower descendent! Come to as many sessions as you would like. The story of the Pilgrims (our congregational ancestors) is fascinating, and Philbrick offers amazing insight into the life of a pilgrim before and after their voyage. The first part of the book shares about the voyage and settlement. The latter part speaks of King Philip's War— which has a great amount of local appeal. We will read and discuss as much of the book as we can in those five sessions.

November 29 and December 6 and 13
6 - 7 pm

I would like to lead a discussion on the book, A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens. Everybody has seen the movie, play or musical based on the classic Christmas tale, but have you actually ever read the book? It is great! It is not a long story, but it could inspire a great conversation. We'll talk a little about Dickens, Christmas traditions, ghosts, and of course the book. I would like to conclude this time by watching the movie, "The Man Who Invented Christmas" which is a wonderful, inventive way of making the old story come alive.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Many thanks to all who donated candy and volunteered on the day of the Attleboro Downtown Trick or Treat. The weather was perfect, and we saw a continuous flow of children, youth, and adults stopping by for our extravagant hospitality, lots of delicious candy, and to check out Bill's spooky organ music!

Though we had to delay one week due to the weather we also enjoyed our first Family Fellowship event of the year: Apple Picking Saturday at Steere Orchard in Greenville, RI. It was so nice to share this time together on the bumpy tractor ride, while picking apples, and when sharing a snack and the story of Johnny Appleseed. Our next Family Fellowship is Lights and S'mores at La Salette! Date and time in December to be announced. All are welcome to join us and bring friends and family!

Sunday School: Toddlers through Pre-K can be dropped off beginning at 9:45 in the Nursery for our Littles Program for stories, songs, and crafts that support building a foundation of their faith. We will not be offering Nursery drop off for infants at this time but welcome families with babies to be together in worship, the Conference Room, or the Nursery. Students in Kindergarten and up are welcome to sit with their families for the first part of worship and will join their teachers in the Narthex when noted in the bulletin. If you know of a new family that would like to build community, explore faith, and seek compassionate justice, please feel free to invite them to join us throughout the year for rolling Sunday School registration.

For the first Sunday of the month, November 6th, we will have a Gathering Sunday and Communion.

Sunday November 13th and 20th

'1621: A New Look at Thanksgiving'

We will explore the deep faith of those who traveled on the Mayflower and the historical roots of our denomination with support from a historical guide published by the Congregational Library and Archives, Plymouth's Pilgrims: Their Church, Their World, and Ours. We will also seek to separate the myth from what really happened that first Thanksgiving with 1621: A New Look at Thanksgiving, published by National Geographic in collaboration with Plimoth Patuxet, formerly known as Plimoth Plantation.

Sunday November 27th

He's Here!

The Nativity, from Luke 1-2 as told in 'The Jesus Storybook Bible.' "Everything was ready. The moment God had been waiting for was here at last! God was coming to help his people, just as he promised in the beginning." Beginning with this lesson and throughout the month of December we will prepare for the coming of Jesus through craft, song, and mission activities.

If you have any questions, ideas, or would like to volunteer please feel to reach out to me.

Parents were invited to purchase books and write personal messages to their child! The books will be delivered to the classrooms in November! We will track how many books each student reads. We will also be hosting our annual PJ Story Night. We will host a virtual PJ Storytime on Wednesday, November 16th at 6:30 PM. Our students and families will be invited to join a Zoom call in their PJ's before they head to bed and listen to stories read by the Jack and Jill teachers! ☺

We are excited to start welcoming visitors back into the school. Students are enjoying all the special opportunities we have arranged for them this year! We were able to have visits from various community helpers throughout October, and the children loved this! We have monthly visits with Mrs. Tuminell who brings her guitar to sing and dance with the students. Mrs. Cathy Giannetti will also join us monthly for music and movement. The Enrichment class is enjoying weekly visits from Robin Pascal who is doing weekly cooking lessons. All our classes are enjoying bi-weekly story time with our guest readers Kara Lehane and Ralph Giannetti! I am grateful for all the visitors who are committing their time to Jack and Jill. We truly love having you in our classrooms. Parent volunteers are also coming back into the classrooms to assist the teachers as we start our new Seeds of Stem curriculum and with other projects.

Our Pre-K, Mixed Age and Enrichment classes will also be busy preparing for their Friendship celebration on Tuesday, November 22nd. We will celebrate together in Fellowship Hall. Each classroom will be preparing a special snack and we will share all snacks with each classroom. Each class will also sing a song to their friends and listen to a special story.

We will be hosting our Fall Parent Teacher Conferences on Monday, November 28th and look forward to having the opportunity to meet with families to discuss the growth and development of their children!

May the month bring you many blessings! As always if you know of anyone looking for a pre-school placement, please encourage them to give us a call at 508-222-1149!

CHOIR SCHEDULES

In November the choirs are back to a more regular schedule: Rehearsals will take place for both the Bell Choir and the Adult Choir at the usual times on Thursdays, November 3, 10, and 17. No rehearsals on the 24th (Thanksgiving).

BELL CHOIR OPENINGS

Are you interested in joining the Bell Choir? For various reasons, and for first time in many years, our membership is down, and we could use at least one more player; two would be even better. A little music-reading experience is helpful, but you don't need to be fluent or have extensive background from previous music lessons. In the recent past we've welcomed beginners, and you'll get plenty of help from long-time members. Speak to Bill or a current member, or just come to a rehearsal (6:30 pm, Thursdays) and check us out!

NOTES (AND SPECULATIONS) ABOUT OUR ORGAN (SCHLICHER, 1968)

At Pastor Will's installation (last week, as I write this), the Rev. Ken Boyle made a point about a former pastor, Russell C. Murphy, who, though apparently not well-liked, was a force behind the acquisition of the organ.

A couple years ago (as pandemic projects), I wrote two or three articles for the VOICE about earlier instruments, from the 19th-c in the former white clapboard church up until the mid-1960's. My intention was always to continue the series through the installation of the Schlicker. But (1) pandemic lockdown ended (thankfully), and more normal work schedules ensued; and (2) some of the history of the selection and purchase of the Schlicker appears puzzling or incomplete. Rev. Boyle's comment added another layer to the puzzle.

For those of us of a certain age, the 1960's don't seem like ancient history, but they're now, in fact, 55-60 years in the rear-view mirror. Church officers and committee members at the time, who were then, let's say, in their 40's or older, would now be at least 100 years old, were they still alive. J. Kimball (Kim) Darling, the music director at the time, died around 11 years ago. Documents (e.g., committee minutes and purchase agreements) provide much information, but it also seems that there were discussions (disagreements?) behind the scenes, and the anecdote about Rev. Murphy further confirms that.

I'm not yet ready to write my history, but I can reconstruct some of the process and speculate about some of the decisions that were made. Here's a basic, documented timeline:

- Discussions about a new organ began in 1964, quite clearly tied to the arrival of Kim Darling.
- An organ committee was active in early 1965, selecting Schlicker as the builder of an instrument that would cost around $55,000, with about $5000 more for additional costs (transportation, installation, renovation of the organ chamber, etc.).
- The church's settled pastor, the Reverend Dr. Russell Richardson died in August 1965.
- The time between then and early 1968 seems unsettled, not surprising given the unexpected death of Rev. Richardson and the tenure of (the not well-liked?) Rev. Murphy.
- In 1967, the church had still not raised funds for the total cost of the organ. Even in late 1968, at the time of installation, the church had to borrow $15,000 to make a final payment.
- The Schlicker contract from 1965 details a specification for the instrument that is somewhat more musically compromised (technical details too complicated to describe here) than the existing organ, now and at its installation. I'm imagining disagreements between the Finance and Music Committees, which were eventually resolved (amazingly) in favor of musical interests. I've not yet been able to find information about how and when the disputes were settled.

- Rev. Murphy resigned in the spring of 1968, before the organ was installed in the late fall of that year. As Rev. Boyle noted, Rev. Murphy might very well have brought "the businessmen of the church" into his office to convince them to come up with the remaining funding.

It's now even more apparent to me that writing a complete history of the Schlicker – and of Second Church in the late 1960's – means moving beyond files in our archives devoted to music and into financial reports and the minutes of other committees. Stay tuned.

INTERGENERATIONAL SACRED DANCE

Sacred Dance practices are continuing in the month of November. We will have rehearsals on all Saturdays except during the Fair on November 5th. If you would like to be a part of movement in worship all ages are welcome to join the intergenerational sacred dancers. We gather at 9am on Saturdays for about 45 minutes of stretching, learning new dances for worship, and a little bit of just "fun dance". If you or your child has any questions, please let me know at (508)409-7919 or de_saunders@hotmail.com. Hope to see you then!

OUTREACH & MISSIONS

Second Saturday Coffee House and Open Mic: For this fun outreach opportunity, we request a voluntary donation of $5 and sell bags of Equal Exchange coffee (either regular or decaf) for $10 each. Where does the money go? Well, so far it has done double duty: it has purchased the Fair Trade coffee, and it has wiped out $40,000 of medical debt. What?????

Read on...

Fair Trade companies like Equal Exchange deal directly with small-scale, environmentally responsible farmers, ensuring that they can earn a fair return on their hard work. For more info, here's a link: <https://www.ucc.org/fair-trade-project>

The remaining money has gone to a program for relieving medical debt. Why? True story: A young woman shared that her company offers health insurance as part of her benefits. In addition to rent, a car payment and crushing student loan debt, she has a health plan that she contributes to each pay period. She has a $4000 deductible, and then has to cover 20% of all medical bills. If this young woman gets injured or requires hospitalization or needs lifesaving surgery, it could easily bankrupt her. It should be no surprise to learn that medical debt is the leading cause of bankruptcy. And personal medical debt does not stop with the debtor. Medical debt ultimately gets paid by taxpayers, as costs for Medicaid and Medicare are driven up.

The UCC has been working with a national charity called, "RIP Medical Debt." RIP Medical Debt buys the debt from debt collecting agencies for a penny on the dollar. To date, RIP Medical Debt has forgiven $5 billion in medical debt! Yes, $5,000,000,000! Our church's $400 donation will wipe out $40,000 in medical debt! When you came to the coffee house and put $5 in the basket--or bought Equal Exchange coffee--you may have just helped someone avoid bankruptcy!

(You can read more about the medical debt, its impact, and debt forgiveness in the book, End Medical Debt: Curing America's $1 Trillion Unpayable Healthcare Debt written by Jerry Ashton, Robert Goff, and Craig Antico. All the proceeds from the book go directly to their cause. If you spend $17 for the book, you have just contributed $1,700 to help a stranger get out from underneath absurd medical costs.)

Did You Know?

Did you ever hear of Captain Allan Villiers? No! Well, how about Captain Christopher Jones? What if I told you they were both commanders of the Mayflower. To be sure, they were two different vessels, and they set sail 337 years apart. Mayflower II can still be seen at Plymouth after one trip across the Atlantic with modern navigational aids and a handpicked crew: oh yes, and a cat.

The first Mayflower was built sometime around the year 1616 and was known as a "sweet ship" due to the fact that on some of her earlier voyages she had carried fish, turpentine, timber, wine and other fragrant commodities. However, those smells were nothing compared to the odor of 102 passengers crammed into already filthy quarters. Bathing was virtually impossible, but these people were accustomed to bathing only a few times a year (weather they needed it or not). The provisions they brought with them were soon either gone or inedible. Sanitary conditions, especially for the women, were beyond description. Most of the time, all the passengers were seasick, and the seas were too stormy to allow them topside.

The low point in the voyage was when one of Mayflowers main beams cracked and was repaired with great difficulty. Finally, on the tenth of November, land was spotted. This was not where the Pilgrims expected, but land was land, and their long arduous voyage was just about over.

Their story is well known. As for the good ship Mayflower, it soon returned to England on April 5, 1621, never to return to these shores. The Mayflower made several other voyages in European waters and was finally broken up for scrap. One of Mayflowers main beams is believed to be part of an English barn and can still be seen today.

As for Captain Jones, he made several trips to France, but unfortunately died in early March 1622. His remains are still buried in the church graveyard of St. Mary's Church.
